CAREER EXPO 2002 JOB FAIR DRAWS 200 EMPLOYERS

(PHOENIX, February 26, 2002) – You may find the perfect job at the Career Expo 2002, 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Wednesday, March 20, at the Arizona State Fair Grounds, Exhibition Building, 1826 W. McDowell Road.

More than 200 employers will be on hand seeking to fill entry to professional level jobs in high-tech, retail, aerospace, health care finance, law enforcement, armed forces and state and local government.

Employers will be interviewing and some will hire on the spot. Job seekers will have access to the state of Arizona's Job Service registration program and the availability of computers for online job search. Attendees will receive tips for successful job seeking.

The fee for companies wishing to participate in the job fair is $250, which includes a booth package, a breakfast seminar, lunch and a 10' x 10" booth. The results of the Metro Phoenix Labor Market Survey conducted by ERISS Corporation will be presented at the breakfast by Victor Merino, Program Manager, City of Phoenix Community and Economic Development Department.

Career Expo 2002 is sponsored by the Arizona Employer's Advisory Council and the Valley Employment Partnership which includes the City of Phoenix Workforce Information Network, Maricopa Workforce Connections, Maricopa skill Center and the Arizona Department of Economic Security.

Both the job fair and parking are free! For more information, call 602-542-6524 or visit www.azjobfair.com on the Internet.
